

Walteria Man Faces Trial

A 47-year-old Walteria man was returned to Santa Ana this week to face charges that he was a "Fagan" who forced his own son and another youth to commit burglaries in Orange and Los Angeles Counties.

Captured in Waco, Texas, Clyde Caples thus joined behind bars his son, Clifford Caples, 19, and Frederick Polston, 19, also of Walteria, in Orange county, and were sentenced before being surrendered to

Los Angeles County authorities for prosecution in connection with looting of gasoline stations, in Lomita and Gardena, and other thefts.

Polston had been nabbed minutes after a Tustin district rancher's home was burglarized. The younger Caples was captured in Ridgecrest, a community near Inyokern. The boy's father fled Ridgecrest a short time before officers arrived there and for months they have searched for him.

ESCHOL COSBY and his Christian Cowboys will present an evening of music, melody, and religious service next Sunday at 7:30 p.m., at the First Baptist Church of Torrance, 2118 Carson St. The public is invited, according to church officials.

Industrial leaders know it is good, business to hire the handicapped. Goodwill Industries' Contract Department offers skilled handicapped workers to perform varied industrial operations at productive speeds.

Sales in the Goodwill stores provide the wages for the physically-handicapped men and women who processed the merchandise. Last year these partially-disabled persons received nearly a million dollars in wages.

The woman pays and pays—because she is always buying something on the installment plan.

Torrance BAPTIST NEWS

REV. JOHNNY MORTON

MATTHEW 21:28-31
But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went. And he came to the second, and said, I go, sir, and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the Kingdom of God before you.

This portion of Matt. divides the people into two classes, those who serve the Lord and those who don't serve the Lord. A lot of people in Torrance are like the second son who when asked to come to church and to serve the Lord, to your face they say, why sure I'll come to church and serve the Lord, we'll stand behind you and help all we can to get the church going, and to win souls for the Lord, but when Sunday comes they have something they feel is more important to do than serving the Lord.

Christian Cowboy Group Appears at Baptist Church

Eschol Cosby and his Christian Cowboys will appear at the First Baptist Church of Torrance this Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m.

This will be the second local appearance of the musical group, which recently completed a nationwide tour.

The evening will start with a musical program by the youth choir, and then the entire evening will be turned over to the Christian Cowboys, church officials disclose.

Realty Firm Gets L. A. Dial Phone

Due to the increase in the real estate and insurance business of the Alter Realty and Insurance, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company has granted them a direct Los Angeles phone, in addition to the three local trunk lines already in use, according to Gerald L. Alter, president of the corporation.

This dial phone, NEVada 6-3450, installed in the main office of the company at 1436 Marcellina Ave., enables the Alter firm to keep closer contact with Los Angeles investors and business men and to better serve the clients of the six Alter offices now located in Torrance, Walteria, Lomita and Wilmington, Alter stated.
